

Haydn's anniversary year 2009

Comprehensive catalogue of all of Haydn's titles published by Henle as print version and also available online

January 2009

Joseph Haydn's music can be heard everywhere at the moment. His anniversary year – 2009 marks the 200th anniversary of his death – has prompted people to devote themselves to the works of this great composer of the "Viennese Classic". As the publisher of the scholarly Complete Edition of Joseph Haydn's works, G. Henle Publishers has always been at the forefront of research into his compositions. Our practical Urtext editions therefore always reflect the latest in scholarly research.

On the occasion of this anniversary we have now produced an extensive catalogue of Henle's Urtext editions of Joseph Haydn's works. It is available in a print version and also online. Both versions are free-of-charge.
